Bandit In Ghost Mask Robs GC Store

'No Halloween Joke,' Proprietress Is Told;
$330 House Burglary

A Halloween-masked bandit held up the Kasproovich confectionery, 2401 Jenden avenue, getting about $20 at 11:45 p.m. Wednesday, according to the proprietress, Mrs. Elizabeth Kasproovich. A $330 house burglary was reported to Granite City police last night.

Mrs. Kasproovich was alone in the store when a slender young man, wearing a dark gray trench coat and the ghost-like mask, entered and pointed a pistol at her, stating that he wanted "all the money."

She thought it was a joke but the man pointed the pistol in a threatening manner. Then he took all of the cash from the register in front of the store. He remarked, "You can keep the change."

The gunman ran north on Washington avenue and apparently cut through the yard of Roy Sage, 2648 Washington avenue, where the mask was found and turned over to police. Patrolmen stopped a young suspect in an auto without a hood near Granite City high school, but he did not fit the description.

Bandit's Description
Mrs. Kasproovich, who was visibly nervous for some time, said the gunman was about 5 feet, 10 inches tall and had reddish hair which protruded around the mask. He wore gloves and had highly polished shoes and dark trousers. She said his mask was pale in color "like a ghost" and had big eyes. She said he was a neat dresser and had not threatened her.

Her son, Joseph Kasproovich, 1732 Fifth street, Madison, had helped in the store moments before the holdup and said that upon leaving he saw a young man fitting the description walking up and down the street. "I remarked that there was a suspicious looking character if I ever saw one," he told a reporter. Kasproovich had seen the gunman without the mask and accompanied police to their headquarters to view "mug" shots.

Mrs. Kasproovich said it was her first holdup experience, and added that the store derives most of its proceeds late in the afternoon when residents shop for dinner.

$330 House Burglary
Mrs. James Goodrich, 3116 Willow avenue, reported that $330 was stolen from two bank envelopes and a lady's white wrist watch was missing in a burglary at her home between 7 and 8:30 p.m. Wednesday while she was visiting her mother.

Entry was gained by breaking the glass in a rear door. Kitchen

Madison, Venice Plan Study Costs Pro-Rated at Meet

Prepared costs to the cities of Madison and Venice for a planning program to be conducted by the Southwestern Illinois Metropolitan Area Planning Commission were announced at a Madison city council meeting Tuesday night.

Based on the 1960 census, Madison's share will be $417.84 and Venice's $374. The total cost charged by SWIMAPC is $23,350, with the federal government to pay two-thirds.

The city legal department was instructed to draw necessary ordinance and resolutions to accompany the city application to the U. S. Housing and Home Finance Agency for the federal funds.

SWIMAPC is to recommend master plans and zoning and subdivision controls for the two cities.

Mayor Stephen Maers suggested that a city plan commission of seven to 11 members from a cross-section of the community be formed, as suggested by federal authorities.

He said the group "will be endowed with a lot of powers," but is necessary if the city is to avoid building and zoning controls set by the county.

Sewer Connection
Permission was granted General Steel Industries to connect a 12-inch concrete storm sewer to a city catch basin on the west side of State street at 13th street, with a provision that the old basin be replaced with another improved type on General Steel property. It will contain a sump pump to prevent grit and gravel from entering the city sewers.

The basin will drain a new plant parking area having a crushed stone surface, and water will flow into the alley sewer between State street and Grand street.

The provision for the pump was made by Edward Juneau of Sheppard, Associates and Schwab, city engineer.

The council passed an ordinance on Page 7, Col. 2.

Church Windows Broken;
Damage Set at $500

Three panes of tinted glass and one pane of plate glass were broken by rocks and BB pellets at St. Elizabeth's Church, 1301 Primrose and Pontoon roads, when it was reported at 7:40 a.m. today.

Total damage was estimated at $500. One of the 2x7-foot tinted panes was broken last night. The breakage has been occurring during the past several weeks.

Veto Is Promised

The city council and Mayor Parney were in complete disagreement Monday night over hiring policies for the city.

Council members voted 10-to-5 against hiring a woman secretary for the police department, and the mayor promised to veto the council's 11-to-4 decision for Street Supt. Warfield to hire two men for the street department.

The vote on the street department hirings was taken after the council had voted 13-to-2 to overturn the Mayor's refusal to recognize the hiring motion on which action had been deferred last week.

City Atty. Allen was kept busy turning down requests for numerous legal opinions.

Salary Payment Refused
Council members even refused to file the mayor's 30-day appointment of Mrs. LaVesta Irwin as the police secretary and separate her salary from the regular payroll.

Mayor Parney said he would place the letter of appointment in

UF Drive Creeps Upward— $7995 Needed to Reach Goal

The 1966 United Fund campaign donations inched upward 7 point this week to $340,505, or 97.8% of the $348,000 goal.

In the absence of general chairmen John R. Hundley, announcement of the $7275 advancement this week was made by co-chairman Carl Mathias, Hundley, a Granite City Steel Co. vice-president, is out of town on a business trip.

The drive now is within $7995 of the goal, and the deadline for the 250 volunteer workers to complete their work is Sunday.

A meeting of the campaign chairman headed by Hundley is set for 8 a.m. next Monday.

More Awards
Four additional employee group awards and one for a business firm for "fair share" giving, will be announced this week by Mathias.

The employees groups include the staff of the office of the Catholic Mount Boy Scout Council, Madison schools, Glik's Department stores and the Good Fellowship Club of the officials and employees of the city of Madison.

It was noted all are five-year recipients and the Madison school employees have had 100% participation for 14 years.

Mercer Mortuary is receiving a first year award for "fair share" giving by the firm.

Another section of the campaign went over the 100% mark in pledges, Mathias said, in giving recognition to C. A. McWilliam Jr., section captain whose collection for $1500 from staffers of the United Fund agencies hit 103.3%.

"Labor Unions and ministerial groups have vigorously opposed the right to work act," he added.

Maybe it will take a governmental group to do the job as it was done in Missouri," Sternberg added, advocating the action be taken over two counties or a congressional district.

10 Undergo Surgery
At Local Hospital

The following are recovering at St. Elizabeth Hospital from surgery which they underwent since Monday:

Shirley Shane, Glen Carbon; Freda Brake, 2206 Lee avenue; Eugene Rotter, 1615 Minerva avenue; Steve Bezan, 3161 Aubrey avenue; Melba Jones, 2417 Bromley street.

8 DAYS WITHOUT A QUAD-CITY TRAFFIC DEATH

When the mayor called for the letter to be placed on file, the vote was 10-to-5 against him.

The motion to separate the police secretary's salary from the city's half-monthly payroll was made by Alderman Johnson, who requested a legal opinion on pay for 30-day appointments.

Alderman Sternberg, chairman of the Street Committee, said the committee could not agree on whether two men should be hired to replace a street worker who had retired and another who died.

"One member says hire; one says don't, and the other just doesn't say," the chairman remarked.

The Personnel committee, headed by Alderman Thompson, was not called upon for a recommendation.

Immediately, Alderman Nann requested that the street superintendent to be authorized to hire two men.

"I don't recognize your motion," Mayor Parney told Nann.

"I appeal the ruling of the chair," Nann replied.

When Nann repeated his appeal, Mayor Parney said, "This administration will be as efficient and as economical as it can in the next 3½ years. I would not be in favor of hiring anyone else in the street department. We have two foremen who can be assigned jobs, and I feel the superintendent is capable of handling the supervision."

Whitmer said the 23-member

Study Groups to Meet Jointly on Starch Co. Issue

A joint meeting of "study groups" representing the negotiating staffs of the Union Starch & Refining Co. and the striking Oil, Chemical and Atomic Workers Union, Local 7-663, is scheduled Friday in St. Louis.

The meeting has been set to correlate the work done by the committees in separate caucuses this week. The committees have met daily since Monday, in separate sessions, to study individual job reclassifications outlined in company demands for craft realignment. The issue has been the major stumbling block in settlement of the starch company union dispute that resulted in a strike of 48 employees on July 4.

The strike went into its 123rd day today.

Full Meeting Expected
Bernard O'Keefe, conciliator of the U.S. Mediation Service, said a meeting of the full negotiating teams from both sides is set tentatively for Monday in the mediation offices. Definite plans for such a meeting, however, will depend upon the outcome of Friday's meeting of the study committees.

Both company and union officials have described the study program as "progressing nicely" and have expressed the first hope.

13 Accidents in Quad-City Area; 10 Persons Injured

Two Drivers Injured
James L. Kramer, 27, of 2728 Saratoga street, and Elouise M. Clark, 36, of 2806 Buxton avenue, were injured when their autos collided at Faith and Myrtle avenues at 1:10 a.m. today. The extent of the injuries were undetermined. Kramer was charged with running a stop sign.

Duval Price, three, son of Mr. and Mrs. Price, 318 Spruce street, was hurled headfirst from the back seat after the dash-board of an auto driven by William Lapach, St. Louis, who jammed on his brakes when he saw railroad gates going down at the Niedringhaus avenue crossing at 3:50 p.m. Monday.

Election Planned Dec. 18 On GC Park Ice Skating Rink, Recreation Center

Drivers Warned
Of Radar Step-up

The Granite City police department is expanding its use of radar equipment to all sections and streets of the city to control excessive speeding. Police Chief Raymond Williams warned today.

He said the department recently received a shipment of new radar equipment and that more police officers are being trained in its use.

The increase of the ever-increasing number of accidents in the city, and in the belief that excessive speed is one of the primary causes, a concerted drive is being made and the radar equipment will be used much more than in the past," he said.

The chief added that extensive studies now are being made of the entire city by a traffic commission and changes are being made relative to certain stop signs, school zones, speed zones and other traffic controls.

"Strict enforcement of speed laws is essential and warning is hereby given that all sections of the city will be radar patrolled with the expanded number of qualified officers," he said.

Just the main thoroughfares as has been the past practice," he said.

Auditor Commends
Prompt Action by Cemetery Trustees

(Special from Springfield)

The sum of $31,067 which was previously unaccounted for in the perpetual care fund of the Sunset Hill Cemetery Association of Granite City, will be repaid by Nov. 30, plus an accrued sum of $13,408 in interest.

The announcement was made in Springfield Monday by State Auditor Michael J. Howlett through members of his staff who met with representatives of the association and the Granite City Trust & Savings Bank.

Representatives of Howlett's office following the conference commended the cemetery trustees for the prompt attention. It was noted that question about the proper contributions to the care fund account had been made by the auditor since the Granite City Trust & Savings Bank had been custodian of the cemetery accounts.

Informal Session
The meeting, an informal session which the state auditor's staff said was not a hearing, had been requested by representatives of the cemetery association after a report was made last week, showing Howlett that there was $31,067 unaccounted for in the perpetual care fund.

Newsmen were not admitted to the meeting. Afterward, lawyers and representatives of the cemetery association were present.

All Purpose Facility Would Seat 3500 for Summer Activities; Open-Air Effect With Roof Affording Protection From Weather

Climaxing long planning, Granite City park commissioners and a group of citizens last night decided to proceed with a special election to build a new ice skating rink pavilion in Wilson Park.

A short but active campaign for passage is to be conducted for the structure, which would accommodate 700 to 900 skaters at one time and also would provide a roof warm weather meeting place capable of seating 3500 persons.

The rink is to have an all-purpose surface enabling it to be used for a wide variety of community activities.

Programs at the specially-designed Wilson Park recreation center could include recreational, speed and figure skating, hockey, musical entertainment, movies, square dancing, teen dances, a picnic shelter, tumbling and gymnastics, outdoor banquet area, group activities of Macaroni and Jersey clubs, such as flower shows, city or county fairs, retailer shows and auto shows.

Located north of Niedringhaus grade school, south of Fehling road and east of the park office, the $475,000 center involves an increase estimated at less than 1% of local tax bills—$2 or $3 for most families.

Estimated interest rate on the bonds would be retired in 10 years rather than over a longer period, resulting in a substantial saving in interest costs.

Estimated interest rate on the general obligation bonds is 3½%. There is no existing park debt.

Valuable for Area Growth
Noting that numerous metropolitan areas and midwestern communities either have ice rinks or are currently installing them, park commissioners and the appointed citizens' committee expressed the belief that the proposed center can be of great value in retaining present residents and attracting residential and economic growth.

They are enthusiastic about the project because of its reasonable cost and because it can round out the recreational facilities offered in this area.

This view is shared by Park President Barry Loman, Citizens' Chairman Carl E. Mathias and others in the gathering of 30 held last night at the Rose Bowl. "The rink plan recognizes Granite City's position as a first-class community," one that is on a par with or ahead of other communities currently competing for growth and prosperity."

Nicholas R. Brink, A. O. Smith Corp. plant manager, was named general campaign chairman. Other appointments are to be made this week.

$5x15x Foot Ice
The brick, wood and steel structure would include an 55x15-foot concrete surface built to provide a surface of ice ideal for skating. The roof also would cover concrete walks around the rink, making the overall size 115x205 feet, as well as a 3000-square-foot warming house and concession area.

Although a roof is necessary to insure availability of the rink in all kinds of late fall, winter and early spring weather, it would be open on all four sides. This is to include open areas on the two ends rising to the apex

Board Inspects New Offices And Honors Former Member

Venice school board members attending will be followed $125 met in the new $29,123 administrative annex building for the first time Monday evening. They were escorted on an inspection tour of the new offices by John O. Pier, superintendent of schools, prior to the business session.

Later, in special ceremonies, a walnut and bronze appreciation plaque was presented to Harold Seibert, a former school board member, who recently resigned after moving with his family to Granite City.

In making the presentation, President Michael E. Leatherman Jr. commended Seibert for "unfailing interest in affairs of the school district" and "devotion to the betterment of the Venice educational system" during his eight years in office.

Pier announced that an evaluation and inspection survey by the North Central Association has been postponed until January. He gave attendance percentage figures for October as follows: Venice grade school, 95.33%; Lincoln grade school, 95.67%; and Venice high school, 95.10%.

The superintendent reported a break-in Saturday night at Lincoln elementary school, netting the thieves $3.50 and a letter opener from Principal Robert Vickers' office. A small window pane had been broken to gain entry to the offices from the corridor.

Records Transferred

Transferring files and other equipment from the old offices to the new administrative annex will be completed early next week, Pier said.

The one-story brick structure, located adjacent to Venice grade school, has an overall size of 49x35 feet. The building houses a reception area, four offices, a 2x15 foot board room, utility room, vault and two washrooms. The entire interior is paneled in walnut, with beige terrazzo floors and recessed lighting fixtures. Three of the office areas are separated by six-foot-high walnut and opaque glass divider panels.

Bills authorized for payment totaled $17,903 from the educational fund, including $3967, teachers' retirement system; $6620, withholding tax; $360, hospitalization; $231, teacher federation dues; $231, Kunitzman Agency; $223 for building and contents insurance; $500, Don Ohi Office Supplies for desks and chairs; $819, Illinois Power Co.; $2235, Fijian-Maers Agency, insurance for driver training car and building contents; $200, Dr. L. E. Lee, dental services; and Dr. J. C. Byers, physician fees.

Other bills authorized for payment included $14,175 from the building fund, $16,827 from the transportation fund and $872 as the board's share of the Illinois Municipal Retirement Fund.

By resolution, the board authorized transfer of $80,000 from the educational fund to the working cash fund.

Convention Plans

Several board members indicated they plan to attend the annual convention of the Illinois School Board Association Nov. 19-20 and 21 in Chicago. Leatherman was named as the official delegate with Fred Rumpf as alternate.

It was agreed that members

Goal for Fight Against TB is $50,000

More than 60,000 Christmas Seal envelopes are being delivered throughout Madison County this week as the Madison County Tuberculosis Association launched its annual Seal Campaign to raise funds for a continuous drive against tuberculosis—still rated as the second greatest killer among contagious diseases in America.

Through the sale of Christmas Seals, providing a good part of the money that keeps the association in operation, tremendous strides in control of tuberculosis and other chest diseases have been made, according to Joseph Schroeder of Alton, president of the Madison county organization. "Intensified research in the field of chest diseases has brought rewards in the first half century," Schroeder said, adding that "We now know how to find, diagnose and treat many of those ills. We know the symptoms to look for. We know how to use tuberculin for skin testing, and how to do careful X-Rays to discover whether a newly active case of tuberculosis has started."

"Asthma, hay fever, bronchitis and emphysema and a number of other respiratory diseases are all more amenable to today's scientific and informed treatment. There is still more to be learned and there always will be in the field of scientific research, and there is much that is being accomplished right now."

Quota is $50,000

Quota for the campaign this year is the same as last year—$50,000. The money is used for chest X-Ray surveys, research, health education materials in the schools and industry.

Residents receiving the envelopes are urged to return their contributions in the "Breathe Easy" envelope that is enclosed with the seals.

Donations in the Christmas Seal program, small or large, enables the association to continue its chest X-Ray program which not only detects cases of tuberculosis, but many other chest and lung disorders. This year the association findings included 12 active cases of tuberculosis, 30 tuberculosis suspects, 12 malignant chest cancers, 30 chest tumors and 72 cases of emphysema. Each X-Ray is read by a chest radiologist, and a follow-up on each person is conducted by the association.

The association office is located in downtown Edwardsville and is maintained separate and apart from the county's tuberculosis sanatorium.

Volunteer Help

Much work is done by volunteer helpers, such as Mrs. Tom Kochan of Wood River who said: "I am personally acquainted with the work of the tuberculosis program in Madison county."

"I was surprised when I visited their office and found almost a bare room . . . No fancy carpets, or draperies—only working items such as a typewriter, telephone, desks or X-Rays."

"A small staff runs the office, and volunteers are solicited for handling and stuffing of envelopes at this time of the year."

A member of Mrs. Kochan's family was found to have a chest condition by association's X-Ray unit. He has had surgery, returned to work and is recovered.

Although the number of new cases and TB deaths has decreased sharply in the past ten years, progress has not been encouraging lately and the disease, once believed to be licked and headed for oblivion, is far from nonexistent. "The number of cases occurring . . . is too high for comfort and it is being reduced too slowly," according to Beauty Salton "queen contest" Refreshments will be served and prizes will be awarded.

Fashion Show Sunday

The hair fashion committee of the Elite Hairdressers Association will stage a fashion show Sunday, beginning at 2 p.m. in the Elks Club. Theme of the program will be "Holiday Headlines" and will feature a "Mrs. Beauty Salton" queen contest. Refreshments will be served and prizes will be awarded.

GC Council Stalls Annexation of 117-Acre Tract

Stalled by Granite City council members Monday night was the annexation of a 117-acre tract east of Holiday Gardens subdivision which Arthur McFarland and associates plan to develop for single-family homes, duplex dwellings, apartments and a small shopping area.

The annexation ordinance was placed on first reading last week, but no action was taken on it Monday night. Alderman Nomm, chairman of the Ordinance committee, said further study of McFarland's proposal, already approved by the City Plan Commission and supported by Mayor Partney, is needed.

Zoning Change Advances
Advanced to second reading was the ordinance setting a zoning change to R-4 for duplex dwellings on a 2.62-acre tract between Johnson road and Clark avenue, east of the storm water drainage ditch. The property is owned by Mrs. Elizabeth G. Johnson.

Placed on first reading was an ordinance to change to R-4 for duplex dwellings and R-5 for apartments on the R-1 zoning of an adjacent tract at 2021 Johnson road owned by Clarence Lahr. He plans apartments on the 100 feet immediately north of Johnson road and duplex dwellings on the remaining 146 feet. The tract has 115-foot frontage on Johnson road.

In other property transactions involving the city, the council was notified by Granite City Steel Co. that it no longer wanted the streets and alleys north of 21st street at Omaha street and Park avenue at its North Plant site. The firm had offered $1000 for the streets and alleys which were appraised at $470.

Restoration of Streets
Alderman Whitmer pointed out the streets and alleys had been "bulldozed" and should be restored by Granite City Steel Co., which owns the adjacent lots where several homes were razed.

Mayor Partney informed the city a check for $54,000 which the steel mill had agreed to pay for the city for the "behind-the-mill" streets and alleys had been received and deposited. The money is to be used to buy an aerial ladder truck for the fire department.

A bid for the purchase of two lots in the city-owned former Quonset hut at Lincoln Place was accepted from the Church of God of Prophecy, 515 Washington street, Madison, submitted by the pastor, L. W. Crader. The bid figure was $1101 for each lot.

In a motion by Alderman Nomm, the city is to seek low value for the police department firing range building on the Quonset hut site. A portion of the concrete block structure will be needed for the Great River Road right-of-way.

The alderman called for relocation of the building since homes are to be located on the portions of the remaining lots in the block.

2 School Men Named To GC Traffic Group

Appointment of two school district officials to the city's Traffic Study Control Commission, named by Mayor Partney, was approved Monday night by the Granite City council.

More than 400 Tri-City Grocery Co. executives and store supervisors were present Monday evening at Augustine's restaurant, Belleville, to honor three new members of the firm's "25-Year Club" and the winner of the 1965 "Checker-of-the-Year" award.

Mrs. Maxine Holland of the company's Wood River store received the coveted title "Checker of the Year" and was presented with a portable television set.

Her selection was made from 22 semi-finalists, representing each store, who also attended the dinner-dance. About 300 checkers participated in this year's contest.

Twenty-five year pins were presented by S. E. Pershall Jr., company president, to Wayne Metzger, meat department manager, Edwardsville store, and Victor Suppan and Ray Goetter, meat manager and cutter from the firm's Collinsville supermarket.

They were installed in the 25-Year Club, increasing the group's membership to 40. Alvin W. Knackstedt, 2124 S. Main, a meat department supervisor at the Bellemeade Village store, serves as club president.

'Learning is Investment; Teacher Tells Kiwanians

"Learning is an investment," said Alfred Wilson, a sixth grade teacher at Lake elementary school, who effectively uses a new concept in his approach to teaching the conventional three "R's."

A guest speaker at the Kiwanis dinner meeting Monday night, Wilson said it costs taxpayers $1800 a year to keep a child in a detention home and $2500 annually for a family on the public aid rolls. He pointed out advantages to all citizens of a well-rounded, strong educational program and what it can mean in a community.

A teacher for eight years and in his fourth year at Lake school, Wilson utilizes new concepts to instruct most of his classroom students. He reported his students quickly become a war of the many facets of today's world of business, travel and customs, through the newspaper articles.

He illustrated this point by telling of a small boy in his class, who after learning of percentages and loans, worked out the interest rates being charged his mother and informed her quite correctly that her payments were excessively high.

Youngsters soon grasp the significance of fractions, Wilson said, when the daily stock market quotations are used to point up the rise and fall of the market; the margin of profit realized and the annual dividend figures on specific stock.

Realism in this area was achieved, he continued, when his students each contributed toward the purchase of a share of Universal Match Co. stock and avidly recorded its daily progress on the market.

Other newspaper features used in his experimental teaching approach, includes editorial cartoons and the children describe and evaluate in written form. In arithmetic, he continued, his pupils record baseball and basketball averages, using 31 steps to determine performances by professional athletes.

Comparison of prices and values received are discovered through reading advertisements and history and geography are brought up-to-date through overseas datelines and items.

A graduate of Southern Illinois University, with a master's degree in education from the University of Illinois, Wilson also told of his experiences while teaching an accelerated class of gifted children this past summer, sponsored by the local school system. He said 80% of those enrolled in the special class reported reading a daily newspaper.

He further justified his teaching methods by reporting the results of a general knowledge test which showed a three-month advantage by his students over children of the same age and grade level being taught by conventional classroom techniques.

Kiwanis president, Herbert R. Schamot, presided at the meeting held in the Rose Bowl restaurant. Fifteen members attended the dinner.

Madison Trojans (3-4) Close Season With Cahokia

Hope to Upset Highly Favored MW Champions

"This is the best backfield I've seen in my eight years of coaching here," said Pete Truran head football coach at Cahokia high school as his team prepared for the Madison football game here Friday night.

Best backfield it is. The Comanches will field three running backs who are averaging nearly eight yards per carry and a quarterback who has tossed four touchdown passes in conference play.

Larry Overton, the hard-running fullback, is averaging nine yards per carry and, just this week, took the game scoring lead away from Clyde Kuehn of Belleville. To add to Overton's list of talents, he is one of quarterback Charles Tienman's favorite receivers.

Don Gilmer, who has come into his own with a blaze of running during the past few weeks, is a speedy halfback who gains eight yards per carry.

Gilmer has plenty of credentials of his own, but the most impressive is his speed. The junior right half is especially handy when teamed up with the left halfback Edgar Taylor.

Taylor, by Overton - Gilmer standards, is a "piker," he is "only" averaging 6.5 yards per carry.

All three and signal-caller Tienman are in the upper echelon of scorers in this area.

Trojan threat With what might be called "The Four Horsemen of Cahokia," Truran still is somewhat astounded by Madison's offensive threat.

"If (Ron) But is ready, they'll be strong on the outside. Whether or not he's ready, they're strong on the inside with Lusk and Rendell," Truran said.

The Comanche mentor, who already has the conference crown in his trophy case, indicated that although the Madison passing threat has been only adequate to date, he does not rule out the possibility of it clicking Friday night.

Meanwhile, in the Trojans' camp, coach Glen Pickering is planning a few new variations on tried and true plays for the Cahokia game.

Burt Will Play "Burt will play," he said, indicating that the speedster's leg injury has passed. "We're not going to start him, but he will play."

"Overton's real tough, Taylor's real tough, Gilmer's... they're whole backfield's tough," he said. Then the Madison mentor analyzed the Madison come-from-behind success story. "We've had really great second and fourth quarters, but have lacked something in our first and third quarters," he said.

Scoring Edge Madison holds a 27-13 point edge in the fourth quarter of the 23-13 edge in the second quarter, while trailing conference foes by a 20-6 margin in the first period of play and 20-0 in the third can to.

While looking over the statistics, Pickering added that "this body's really given them a rough game this year. I think that we will."

Good ballgame or not, it should be a battle of the backfields.

Rousseau Leads Valpo

Mike Rousseau leads the Valparaiso Crusaders football team in pass interceptions, it was announced this week. The former Granite City grid star has picked off two opponent aerials and returned them 21 yards.

Dawes, who conducted the meeting, said season basketball tickets for nine Warrior home games are available from him or at the local high school office at a pre-season cost of $9 each.

Membership Drive Renewed efforts to enlist club members will be made by a membership committee composed of Willis Sheppard, Lloyd Whitworth and Nick Petrillo.

Petrillo Helps Peru Team Win Nick Petrillo, a former GCHS footballer, drove the piskins down to the Kearney State one-yard line and set up the winning touchdown in Peru State's latest game, a 14-13 decision Oct. 30, it was learned here this week.

Petrillo's key carry came in the third period of play. The freshman halfback carried eight tries for Peru, gaining 14 yards, and caught one pass for four yards. He also returned a kickoff for 19 yards.

May Retain Bigger Squad Each coach is actively involved with a group of boys at all times, Morrison said, and under the new system could handle additional athletes.

He added that this raises the possibility of not having to cut the squad down at the beginning of next season. The Warriors currently have a 65-man squad, but between 80 and 100 boys have been known to report at the season outset.

Morrison and Wyrostek discussed tomorrow's game at home against Quincy and showed it films of Warrior contests with East St. Louis and Edwardsville.

In other business, the Boosters completed plans for a "Welcome Dinner," slated for 6 p.m. Saturday at the Rose Bowl restaurant. Tickets at $2.50 each still are available from Emerald Dawes, Booster president.

Those to be honored at the event include Wyrostek, an All-American and former Missouri University football star, Ralph Sackett, new GCHS head basketball coach, and Carl Henson, new assistant track coach.

Morrison Initiates New System, More Effective Than Old Practices

Complete revamping of football practice procedures at Granite City high school, initiated two weeks ago, is proving highly effective in certain coaching areas, according to Jim Morrison, GCHS head football coach.

Speaking Tuesday evening at the Boosters of the Fighting Warriors meeting in the YMCA, Coach Morrison described the new system as enabling varsity and reserve football players to work out for a continuous period at each session. Utilizing the new procedure, he said, no boy stands idle at anytime; all are constantly busy, supervised by a specific coach.

Basically, the new practice program divides the team into four separate units under the direction of Morrison and assistant coaches Stan Wojcik, Gordy Galbreath and Tom Wyrostek.

An interchange of players is made after a 45-minute practice period; otherwise, the offensive, defensive, specialist squads and backfield units remain separated for more intensive instruction in their particular areas.

May Retain Bigger Squad Each coach is actively involved with a group of boys at all times, Morrison said, and under the new system could handle additional athletes.

He added that this raises the possibility of not having to cut the squad down at the beginning of next season. The Warriors currently have a 65-man squad, but between 80 and 100 boys have been known to report at the season outset.

Morrison and Wyrostek discussed tomorrow's game at home against Quincy and showed it films of Warrior contests with East St. Louis and Edwardsville.

In other business, the Boosters completed plans for a "Welcome Dinner," slated for 6 p.m. Saturday at the Rose Bowl restaurant. Tickets at $2.50 each still are available from Emerald Dawes, Booster president.

Those to be honored at the event include Wyrostek, an All-American and former Missouri University football star, Ralph Sackett, new GCHS head basketball coach, and Carl Henson, new assistant track coach.

Belleville Warned for Pre-Season Practice

Belleville high school has been censured by the Illinois High School Association for an alleged violation of a rule regarding the pre-season practice of football players.

The IHSA executive secretary reported that he received a tip from a high school principal that the Belleville Maroons' football team was conducting unauthorized practice sessions.

Fitzhugh went to Belleville, and saw approximately 75 boys leave the school gymnasium wearing tee shirts, shorts and football shoes. The boys then went to the practice field, where they engaged in a well-organized, business-like workout involving calisthenics, isometric exercises and other drills common to football.

The report went on to say that Fitzhugh saw the boys practicing kicking field goals on the stadium field while others were engaged in passing and kicking activities.

Fitzhugh testified before the board that there were no adults present at the time he saw the youngsters practice on Aug. 19 of this year.

According to the report, after questioning the boys, Fitzhugh learned that most of them were sophomores and juniors; they had begun informal practice sessions early in August; the sessions were voluntary; no record of attendance was kept; and no reports were made to coach Bob Fraley by his assistants.

Fraley Denies Charges Fraley stated at the board's October meeting that the "school" facilities were utilized to the fullest extent for high school, community, League and recreational activities during the summer months. "He also added that no effort had been made to prohibit high school football players and other boys from using the facilities, if they so desired."

The board, after reviewing all of the facts, said there was no conclusive evidence to prove that Belleville had organized or practiced its football team before the specified date of Aug. 25.

The board did say that in letting large numbers of players use facilities of the school for pre-season practice, the school authorities did violate the rule. The school's authorities were told that unless the situation is corrected, Belleville's status in the IHSA will be jeopardized.

Johnson, Brokaw Return to Lineup; McKeachan Out, Moore is Doubtful

"Seven down and four to go," said Jim Morrison, pointing to the two remaining games on the Warriors' nine-game schedule for the year.

When asked about the "four to go" with only two games left, Morrison said, "I figure that Quincy will give us enough trouble for two ballgames, and then Belleville will do the same."

Quincy will face the Granite City team this Friday on the Warriors' home turf at 8 p.m. and Belleville will follow the next week.

To add to the problem of playing "two ballgames" in one night, Morrison reached for a piece of paper. "The hospital report," he indicated. "It says that we are off the critical list."

Off the critical list the Warriors may be, but two of their standouts are out, one definitely and the other questionable for the Quincy tilt.

Gary Johnson, the team's leading scorer, will return to the lineup in his halfback spot, and so will Ed Brokaw, who has been defensive standout on the team. Johnson was sidelined with a shoulder injury and Brokaw with injuries to both legs.

McKeachan Out Wayne Palmer, a junior right halfback, leads the team in yards gained through several long runs and his speedy breakaway style.

In a phone conversation, Gross said his team lacks good defensive tactics. "We're weak on defense, especially on passing," he said.

Warriors Fester "Granite City has good size in the backfield and they're probably faster than we are," he said. "We're quick to point out that the Warriors' pressure defense, like the full press in basketball, can win games in the same manner that scoring can."

"If they stop us, then we won't be able to score; our weak defense, then might give them opportunity to score, and scoring wins games."

"Two games in one, an injury-ridden team and planning are on the Warriors' minds, while defensive offense, weak defense and an equally deceptive season are on the Quincy's factors."

The game will be the Warrior's final "dress rehearsal" for the Belleville tilt.

Seven down and four to go—two this Friday night and two the following Friday night.

Win Weekly Awards

Four Warriors Singled Out for Grid Excellence

"It was difficult to pick only two, and the four of them did play a tremendous game," said Granite City head football coach Jim Morrison in regard to the latest Warrior weekly awards.

As a result of the 28-3 victory over Edwardsville last Friday night, Jim Rains and Jim Hentzel earned the defensive "Chuckles As Murder" award, and Leonard Revelle and Jim Gann won the offensive "Fighting Warrior" award.

Rains won Morrison's praise with 16 defensive points scored, based on the game films and an intercepted pass. Leonard Revelle, in the last couple of weeks that boy has astounded us with his progress," Morrison said.

Hentzel, playing his first year of football, scored 19 defensive points. "It was his first game as a defensive end and we are real pleased with him," the GCIS coach said.

Revelle, who had missed five ball games due to a bad leg, shared the offensive "Fighting Warrior" award with left tackle Gann.

A tri-captain halfback, Revelle scored two touchdowns in the first half of play and picked up 61 yards with an average of 5.5 yards per carry.

"He played a great game — blocked well and ran well," Morrison said.

Gann, playing his first game at left tackle, was, in Morrison's words, "the most consistent player we have had there all year." Gann had been used on the defensive squad in previous games, but was switched in hopes of solving weakness at left tackle.

These four Warrior gridgers and the rest of the squad will face the Quincy Blue Devils at 8 p.m. Friday at Granite City.

MORE ABOUT Auditor

tery association had no comment for reporters.

However, it was learned that R. W. Griffith Jr. of Alton, lawyer for the cemetery association, gave this letter to the state auditor:

"Dear Mr. Howlett: "Whereas various expenditures for Sunset Hill Cemetery and the accounts thereof have been intermingled and co-mingled, and following conferences and studies, the accounts of the cemetery, we have agreed on a figure of $51,067 together with interest since 1957, $13,468 which were advanced for maintenance of the cemetery that should have been placed in the permanent care fund and accounts and thereafter should have been invested for the perpetual care fund of the cemetery."

"As attorney for the Sunset Hill Trust Estate (an allied corporate arm of the association) and as attorney for Sunset Hill Cemetery Association, I have been authorized to submit the following proposal to the auditor of public accounts:

"The sum of $51,067 is to be placed by the 30th day of November 1965 in the cemetery association's perpetual care fund, and the amount of $13,468 is to be placed in the perpetual care investment fund account of said cemetery, which latter fund is to be offset by the actual operating expense of the cemetery association in the maintenance of its cemetery since 1957. Certificates evidencing the same will be forwarded to your office."

The letter was signed by Griffith. The auditor's staff said the interest owing was computed on earnings the perpetual fund would have established since 1957 on a rate of 5.25% a year.

Dedicated Maintenance Cost The auditor's staff also said the association will submit figures to show the cost of annual maintenance of the cemetery since 1957, and that when these annual costs are approved by the auditor's office, they will be deducted from the interest — $13,468 — and that the balance will then be paid into the perpetual care fund.

Last week, Howlett said he had notified Henry D. Karandjeff, president of the cemetery association, that a hearing would be called to show cause why the cemetery association license should not be revoked because field audits indicated a $51,067.40 discrepancy in the perpetual care fund.

Karandjeff was told by James Kraus, field auditor and state, that it was not necessary for him to be present at the Oct. 18 hearing.

Karandjeff is also board chairman of Granite City Trust & Savings Bank. The bank is listed only as the depository for the cemetery funds and has no control over them except to account for them as depositories.

Karandjeff pointed out the cemetery was started in 1923 and that income from the trust fund investments was not sufficient for proper maintenance. He explained it was necessary to transfer maintenance funds from the trust fund to the cemetery association, and met with state requirements until 1963 when there was a change in legislation.

Recommendation to Auditor After the informal meeting Monday in the state auditor's office, a technical adviser to Howlett, Thomas W. Tarnsey of Chicago, said he would recommend that the state auditor should not revoke the cemetery license since the unaccounted for $51,067 was to be put into the perpetual care fund by Nov. 30.

Others on the state auditor's staff who made the investigation into the cemetery accounts were Herbert M. Lowry, chief investigator, and Sam Vadalabene, head of the downstate division, cemetery care.

After the meeting in Springfield Monday, newsmen were handed a brief typed statement. One from Randall Robertson, lawyer for the Granite City Trust & Savings Bank, said this:

"It is pointed out that the Granite City Trust & Savings Bank as custodian of the cemetery accounts only since July 1963, and there was no question raised by the auditor about the proper contribution to the Care Fund account during this period of time."

A statement by the state auditor's office said this: "Trustees, attorneys and certified public accountants for the Sunset Hill Trust Estate and Sunset Hill Cemetery Association met with the representatives of the Auditor of Public Accounts of the State of Illinois to discuss expenditures from the Cemetery Perpetual Care Fund. The auditor received in writing an acceptable proposal which included a complete rearrangement of the cemetery accounts plus all the earned income during the period under discussion. The auditor wishes to commend the trustees for the prompt attention in this matter."

Newsmen's Questions Newsmen began asking questions of the trustees and only the attorney for the bank, Robertson, stayed to answer them. All others left immediately without acknowledging that reporters were directing questions to them.

"What does the auditor's statement about all this mean exactly?" Lowry, Tarnsey and Vadalabene were asked. Howlett was in Chicago and not at the meeting. The three men said they would contact Howlett at home in Chicago.

"The newsmen here want to know about the meeting on the cemetery accounts," Lowry told Howlett on a long distance telephone call.

"Tell them everything," Howlett replied in a voice loud enough to be heard by newsmen nearby. Tarnsey then explained the details of the statement but said he would still submit his recommendation first to Howlett before making any comment on that before the auditor himself.

Salvation Army to Take Yule Basket Applications

Applications for Christmas baskets distributed through the Salvation Army will be accepted starting at 9 a.m. Monday at the Salvation Army office, 1431 North 16th street, it was announced today by Lt. Ronald Gorton, commanding officer.

Those wishing to apply must call in person at the office between 9 a.m. and 4:30 p.m. Monday through Friday until Dec. 3.

Lt. Gorton explained the local Salvation Army headquarters serves as a clearing house for all United Fruit agencies with similar Christmas basket projects. To avoid double issuance of baskets, he suggests local churches and organizations, also wishing to donate baskets, call the SA office to coordinate names of those persons registered.

Last year, the Salvation Army "Tree of Lights" campaign and its related projects, provided 384 food baskets, 3800 toys and gifts, and 375 clothing and shoe items to needy Quad-City residents.

The 1965 "Tree of Lights" drive is expected to get under way shortly.

Such a design provides an outdoor effect for skaters as well as enabling moisture condensation to be controlled. It was developed by Architects Henry Gabriel and Sylvester Dulgeroff for the city of St. Louis.

Facilities are to include the skating area, for summer use with a 115x205-foot pool; fenced-in 57x49-foot patio area surfaced with skate tile and containing a ten-foot-diameter open pit for fires during the winter; covered concrete area for sunbathing; a concession stand with equipment, designed to serve both the skating area and patio; the warming room, with benches and rental lockers; storage room; a storage room with skate-sharpening equipment; refrigeration equipment and equipment room; an ice surfacing machine and room; a fenced-in ice dump area for use in the event of temporary failure of the equipment that melts ice, shavings and a parking lot for 100 autos.

Those attending last night's meeting included nine park district representatives: President Loman, Vice-President William Milton Worthen, Commissioners Clarence Baumeister, Paul Schuler and William Koryak, Attorney Randall Robertson, Secretary Frank Rea, Treasurer John Minke and Supervisor Harold Brown.

Other public officials present were Mayor Donald Partridge and School Board President Monroe Worthen.

The seven-member citizen committee which has studied the plan for the past year consists of: Russell D. Johnson, Henry D. Karandjeff, Melvin McKay, C. E. Townsend and Ernest E. Velje.

Last night's gathering also included Architects Gabriel and Dulgeroff, Judge D. Bartels, John Bernick, Miss Dorothy Davis, George England, Harold R. Fischer, Roy Graham, William F. Hoelscher, James G. Holland, Ray M. Kaelgel and William F. Winters.

Reservations, including round-trip transportation are $9 per person. Buses will be made with the park office at TR 7-3059 by Monday, Nov. 6. To date, 126 reservations have been received.

At the present time, the park office added, which of the two sites will be used has not been determined. However, he said, those making reservations by Monday will be assured of seats.

Chamber Services in Madison Topic of Club

Club members shared by all segments of the Quad-City area, Chamber of Commerce President Carl E. Mathias yesterday called for steadily increasing community-wide cooperation to "make this a better place to live, work and do business."

In addressing the Madison Rotary club, Mathias said broader job opportunities are vital to future Quad-City economic health and noted a large number of industrial development programs currently in progress, including the Madison city industrial park.

Twenty-six Chamber committees are conducting civic betterment efforts in a wide variety of fields benefiting Venice, Madison, Granite City, Pontoon Beach and Mitchell, Mathias said. One of the goals is a large-scale cleanup, fix-up, paint-up drive in the spring of 1966 to increase neighborhood pride, he reported.

Auto Theft Cleared, Car Not Recovered

Granite City police were able to clear an auto theft case with the arrest by East St. Louis police of David Drake, 18, of East St. Louis, who is admitted numerous auto thefts in the metropolitan area.

The 1963 auto was stolen from Walter Bowles, 49 Villa drive, on the night of Oct. 28 from the Granite City Steel Co. parking lot. It has not been recovered.

GC Park District to Open Youngsters Bowling Loops

Registration for the annual fall and winter bowling programs for youngsters, sponsored by the Granite City park district, will be combined with the first bowling session at 9 a.m. Saturday, at the Tri-Mor lanes, it was announced today by Harold Brown, park superintendent.

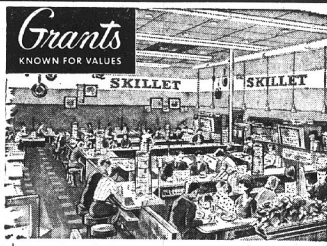

As in last year's program, both boys and girls from the fifth through 12 grades, who reside in the Granite City park district, are eligible to participate. Youngsters may register as a team, or on an individual basis. Brown said, all those registering will be placed on a list. Participants will be divided into three leagues according to age groups. Brown explained, with fifth and sixth grade pupils forming a beginner league, Junior and Senior high school students will compete in two separate leagues.

The girls' program will be conducted each Saturday from 9:10-4:45 a.m., with the boys' leagues taking over the same day from 10:45 a.m. to 12:30 p.m., under the direction of Ray Hoffman.

A 30-cent-per-game bowling fee will be charged, the park official said, and shoes may be rented for ten-cents per session. He added that shirts are provided by team sponsors in the junior and senior leagues.

More than 150 youngsters participated in the 1964 recreational bowling series, Brown said. Each year, a mother-daughter and father-son bowling tournament and banquet is held in late March to conclude the program.

Levee Brd. Begins Cutting Payroll Due To Finances

Substantial reduction in the maintenance and projects payroll — expected to exceed 60% — was begun Wednesday by the East Side Levee and Sanitary District due to a lack of funds. Officials said during Wednesday's board meeting that all labor forces will be cut to a bare minimum with supervisors and foremen handling operations on a reduced scale. Office crews and the engineering staff is expected to remain at normal, it was said.

Such cuts in employment are customary toward the end of the district's fiscal year, but seldom occur this early, according to Ben Campbell chief clerk. Campbell said payroll cuts usually are made in the middle or near the end of December. The current cut is being made six to eight weeks earlier than usual.

The levee district board approved a payroll of $22,993 for the last two weeks of October. Campbell explained this is a near-normal payroll, but it was because many employees already laid off had vacation time coming to them. The vacations were included in the October payroll figures. Further payroll list will show substantial cuts in the number of employees, he said.

Working in Area

William "Mike" Ebersold, city clerk of Venice and a member of the levee board, said only seven persons have been working recently in Madison county areas of the levee district.

According to a report filed with the district Wednesday morning, levee district receipts during October amounted to $880,138, including taxes of $26,684 from Centerville township, $228,491 from East St. Louis township, and $64,642 from Stites township.

Expenditures, during the month, amounted to $792. This figure included transfer of $443,433 the total income to the bond interest sinking fund and a payment of $25,015 on outstanding anticipation warrants. The disbursements left the district with a balance of $110,519 for the remaining two months of its fiscal year.

The board conducted only routine business in its Wednesday meeting. Board members approved an expenditure of $1000 to become a member of the St. Louis Regional Development Commission after a representative of the commission explained the objectives of the commission.

Bill Payments

Payment of $4079 to Horner & Shifren Engineering firm and $12,071 to the Midwest Blacktop Roads Corp. for work done in connection with the Lansdowne sewerage system program was approved. The work for which the payment was made was done on the Venice section of the sewerage system. Regular claims of $21,548 also were approved.

Lawrence Tolar, board president, told members that he has been informed that Collinsville has not yet reached a definite decision on joining the new sewerage program, but that he is expecting a final answer soon.

The board also decided to ask the assistance of a new state commission that examines records and documents of taxing agencies and informs the agencies what records may be destroyed. Board Attorney John Hodson said he would request the state assistance with the board's authorization to do so. Records of the district, kept since its inception in the early 1900's, are presenting a storage problem.

Action Pending On Contract for Anchorage Units

The Granite City Housing Authority still is awaiting word from regional and national housing officials on whether a $2,320,000 bid will be acceptable on construction of a second 100 Anchorage apartments for the elderly.

The work has been tentatively awarded to the Cannon Construction Corp., Wood River, on its low bid, opened Oct. 12, but final award hinges on federal administration, it was noted at the November 1 GCHA meeting Tuesday night. Contract for the first 100 Anchorage units built several years ago was less than $1 million.

The board tentatively accepted a low bid of $3616 from the Kemper Insurance Group, Chicago, on three-year public liability insurance for all projects under GCHA jurisdiction. The seven bids ranged up to $9177. Regional housing officials are to be consulted.

Executive Director David W. Morgan was appointed by the commission as contracting agent for the Anchorage expansion. It was decided to record the deed for the new 657-acre Anchorage expansion tract, purchased from Udeli Bischoff for $25,500 under condemnation proceedings.

In listing proposed projects for the coming year, the commissioners made plans for canopies to protect back doors of apartments from the weather, additional parking area railings and a possible small addition to the Kirkpatrick Homes maintenance-management building.

Chairman Walter Pfaff presided.

Quick Action Planned for Johnson Rd. Drainage Project; Other Drainage Work Pending--Sidewalk Repairs Debated

Quick action on the Johnson objections to a tap-on to a private drainage problem is anticipated, it was announced during Monday night's Granite City Council session. Bids are expected to be opened at the Nov. 15 meeting.

The project is to drain the lake which forms in the 3300 block of Johnson road after a slight rain. Bid calls are expected to go out soon for three other city projects—drainage of Pontoon road in front of the Namecki Methodist Church, widening of the St. Clair avenue bridge over the storm water drainage ditch and a drainage ditch and a drainage project at the east end of Smith street, a short distance off St. Clair avenue and at the St. Margaret Mary parish property.

Granite City PRESS-RECORD
Page 12 Thurs., Nov. 4, 1965

Those projects are in the hands of the city's motor fuel tax engineer, K. A. Kleberger of Research Planning and Design Associates.

What's Emergency?
Emergency sidewalk repairs were debated briefly by the council as a wide range of matters was taken up during a whirlwind two-hour session.

The city was notified by George Filcoff jr., former city attorney, of a hazardous condition at 2165 Benton street. The letter was placed on file after being called to the attention of Street Supt. Warfield.

Alderman Nonn complained that there was much sidewalk repair needed in the Fifth Ward, but that no effort was being made to carry them out because of the city's request for payment of $1277 for preliminary work on the Mayville road improvement project. The letter is to be studied by the Street committee for a recommendation in two weeks.

The firm stated the amount was due based on a $45,014 estimate for the city job and its fee scale of 10% for jobs ranging from $15,000 to $50,000. The $1277 was for submitting the preliminary estimate and field surveys. Mayor Partney has stated that he has been unable to locate the data.

Approved was payment of $2942 motor fuel tax funds to the Johnson firm for revisions to right-of-way needs for the southern section of the Namecki road improvement, a project which was initially handled by the firm. The engineering details are needed for appraisals. The payment was opposed by Aldermen Rutledge, Moerlein, Sternberg and Thompson.

White Way Assured
A white lighting system for the north section of Namecki road will be installed by Illinois Power Co. at no charge to the city other than the regular cost for operation of the lights. The city agreed to work with the city in development of the system along Namecki road from Madison avenue, north to the city limits.

The firm also reported the "lost" street light requested for the vicinity of Sara avenue and Harvey place in Pontoon Plaza had been mistakenly placed in an alley and now has been installed at the proper location. Illinois Power's request for an excavation south of East 20th street between Park avenue and Quincy street to serve the Koppert warehouse on Granite City Steel Co. property was approved.

Permission was given for the Air Pollution Control Commission to buy 1000 reprints of a September Readers Digest article, "With Every Breath You Take," for distribution, was approved. The cost is $28.

Attendance Urged
Thomas Baker, chairman of the commission, was authorized to attend out-of-town meetings pertaining to air pollution and to submit his expense records to the city for payment. The city failed to budget expense money for the commission. Alderman Rutledge, chairman of the Finance committee, noted the city's contingency fund is low, but that important meetings should be attended by the commission.

Alderman Moerlein, chairman of the Special Pollution committee, reported his group is still working with the bonding firm for the city's sewage treatment plant in trying to develop a plan for financing sanitary sewer installations in the North Granite area and sections of West Granite.

Property condemnation and rating of dangerous buildings in the city will be undertaken in about 30 days, the council was informed by Mayor Partney. Eight property condemnations have been completed, but the city can take no action until 30 days after the judge has signed the order, Partney explained.

Missouri Ave. Problems
City Atty. Allen advised the city he had written to the state highway department requesting immediate emergency repairs to Missouri avenue, which is State Route 3. No data was available on whether the city should set a weight limit for the highway included in the city limits, called for by Alderman Robertson.

Under study are recommendations by Alderman Bartoski for installation of two catchbasins for storm water drainage at 23rd and State streets and by Alderman Green for a 30-minute parking zone in front of Peck's confectionery, 2405 Illinois avenue.

Approved was a driveway relocation in the 1900 block of Edison avenue for a new parking lot for Granite City Trust & Savings Bank on the site of the old Commercial building which was razed last week.

Crop Reporting Service Honoring Area Farmers

Veteran Illinois reporters — 344 of them with a total of 3370 years of service—are to receive certificates of appreciation from the Crop Reporting Service of Illinois and U. S. Departments of Agriculture. They have furnished farm facts and figures for use in official crop and livestock estimates of the Illinois Cooperative Crop Reporting Service for periods ranging from 10 to 40 years.

Crop reporting is a family tradition. Often a son succeeds his father as a reporter after taking over operation of the family farm. They have been called "the intelligence service of agriculture" because information they report gives them, their fellow farmers and the public an up-to-date picture of crop and livestock prospects in the state and nation. During more than 100 years that the service has been in operation, the voluntary reporter has been the backbone of the service.

The certificates are signed by Gov. Otto Kerner, G. D. Simpson, chairman of the U. S. Crop Reporting Board, Washington, D. C., Robert M. Schneider, director of the Illinois State Department of Agriculture, and Robert H. Moats, Illinois State Agricultural Statistics.

Madison county recipients are: 20 years, J. F. Malan and sons, Dale M. Rogier and Fred G. Steimert, 10 years, Clarence Beck, Harold D. Dietz, Harold Gindler, Charles J. Heck, Percy Gindler, Art and Paul Kuhl, Fred Otto and Albert Trautman.

Crop Reporting Service Honoring Area Farmers

Veteran Illinois reporters — 344 of them with a total of 3370 years of service—are to receive certificates of appreciation from the Crop Reporting Service of Illinois and U. S. Departments of Agriculture. They have furnished farm facts and figures for use in official crop and livestock estimates of the Illinois Cooperative Crop Reporting Service for periods ranging from 10 to 40 years.

Crop reporting is a family tradition. Often a son succeeds his father as a reporter after taking over operation of the family farm. They have been called "the intelligence service of agriculture" because information they report gives them, their fellow farmers and the public an up-to-date picture of crop and livestock prospects in the state and nation. During more than 100 years that the service has been in operation, the voluntary reporter has been the backbone of the service.

The certificates are signed by Gov. Otto Kerner, G. D. Simpson, chairman of the U. S. Crop Reporting Board, Washington, D. C., Robert M. Schneider, director of the Illinois State Department of Agriculture, and Robert H. Moats, Illinois State Agricultural Statistics.

Madison county recipients are: 20 years, J. F. Malan and sons, Dale M. Rogier and Fred G. Steimert, 10 years, Clarence Beck, Harold D. Dietz, Harold Gindler, Charles J. Heck, Percy Gindler, Art and Paul Kuhl, Fred Otto and Albert Trautman.

Building Commission Flaw Cited

(Belleville News-Democrat)

A high county official has been quoted as saying that revenue bonds issued by the newly reactivated Public Building Commission are the only way to finance a much-needed new County Jail. This we believe to be incorrect.

Such a contention completely ignores the conventional method by which general obligation bonds are produced to pay for public works. By this latter method all of the taxable property in the community is pledged to secure the loan, which is repaid over a period of not more than 20 years by collection of a special tax levied. General obligation bonds require approval of a simple majority of votes cast in a public referendum.

This is the way Belleville bought its new City Jail and Central Fire Station. Our magnificent new high school and junior college plant—in fact, all of the other public buildings in this area—also have been financed by general obligation bonds voted by the people.

A revenue bond issue presumes a legitimate source of income from the sale of a service or commodity, profits of a business, or the use of a property. It is used to repay the lenders, Belleville's sewage treatment plant and new master sewer plan are being paid for by sewer users. Our public swimming pool is being paid off by admission tickets sold. Our off-street parking lots are being financed by autists who patronize these facilities.

The "revenue" in the case of the Public Building Commission projects would be derived from "rental" paid by the county for jail facilities and office space in the old "Court House complex." However, this "rent money" would be raised by a mandatory special tax collected for this purpose in addition to all other taxes.

So, in this case the difference between "revenue bonds" and "general obligation bonds" is purely technical. For all practical purposes there is no difference—except that with the "revenue bond" plan the public is denied the right to determine the limit of how high local property taxes may go! The people thus are compelled to forfeit their right to decide when buildings are really needed, how lavishly they shall be built, and they shall cost. Henceforth the Public Building Commission will make these decisions. They will afford this possible and need not consult anybody.

While we have complete confidence in the trustworthiness of the newly sworn-in commissioners, there can be no guarantee that this high standard will be maintained. Experience negates this hope, and spurs the fear that deterioration is, in fact, almost inevitable.

In this case it is aggravated by the commission's broad scope and general obligation bonds. The Public Building Commission has the power to put up office and store buildings, shopping malls, public parks, airports, streets and sewers, off-street parking lots, etc., about the only restriction is that all improvements must be located within the county seat, and where else?

Although Belleville, as county seat, might be a major beneficiary in ventures other than strictly county functions, such as a County Jail and Court House, most of all projects must be spread against all of the taxable property in St. Clair County. That's what the law says.

How does this suit the taxpayers of St. Clair County? Madison, O'Fallon, Mascoutah, Freeburg, Lebanon, Millstadt, Smithton, Caseyville, Dupu, New Athens, or any other precinct of St. Clair County?

Moreover, the law adds that these taxes shall be in addition to all other taxes "now or hereafter authorized to be levied." There are no limits on the amount of taxes that can be levied, and on, forever, continually increasing in burden. Once started, there's nothing anybody could do to stop the avalanche of spending and taxing.

If we are to avert this foreseeable catastrophe, the Board of Supervisors must act immediately to formally dissolve the Public Building Commission.

Illinois Statute Chapter 24, Section 333, states that this may be accomplished by a resolution of the county board filed with the Recorder of Deeds before the building commission has issued any bonds or incurred any public indebtedness. To carry now is to invite doom.

High taxes and taxpayers had better take the trouble to tell their supervisors! Advise them to waste no time in abolishing the Public Building Commission at the next meeting, which is the Nov. 5 meeting.

And tell them, too, to get on with forming a commission, created by the Illinois General Assembly, to study the problem of how to finance public buildings—without a shakedown, heaven forbid!—to schedule an early referendum to approve building a new escape-proof County Jail.

October Accidents Average 7.4 Each Day

Traffic accidents in the Quad-City area during October jumped to an average of 7.4 accidents each day, with a daily average of 4.5 persons injured. Records show that 228 accidents occurred in the area during the 31-day month—the highest for any single month since January, when 230 accidents were reported.

One fatality occurred during October, increasing to 22 the number of deaths resulting from traffic mishaps during the ten months of the year. This is an increase of three fatalities over the 19 traffic deaths at the same time last year.

Injuries were suffered by 136 persons during October, an increase of 24 injury cases over the total of 112 persons injured in October of 1964.

The 228 accidents during last month increased to 186 the total number of accidents thus far this year, while the 136 injury cases increased to 122 the total number persons injured during the ten-month period. The number of persons injured thus far this year is slightly under last year's figure of 140.

The only previous month in a three-year period to exceed October's accidental total was last January and December 1964, when there were 230 and 235 accidents, respectively. There has been only one other instance this year in which the number of accidents exceeded the 200 mark. That was in March when 204 accidents were reported.

No Deaths in August
Twelve of the 22 traffic deaths reported so far this year occurred in three separate months with four deaths each—February, April and September. In March and May there were two fatalities each and three traffic deaths occurred in June. One traffic death each was reported in January, July and October. August has been the only month so far this year in which no fatalities were reported.

Traffic accidents have been on a steady increase during the past two years and are now running about 500 per year ahead of the totals of only a few years ago.

During the first ten months of 1965, for example, the total number of accidents was 1338, compared to 1353 for the same period of 1964 and the 1861 accidents for the first ten months of the current year.

The total number of accidents in 1963 was 1727 with 834 injuries. For the twelve months of 1964 the total number of accidents was 2280, or 553 more than in 1963, with 1153 injuries. If the trend remains unchanged for the remaining two months of the current year, another increase in the total number of accidents should occur.

The 136 injury cases during October was the highest of any month so far this year. September was next with 117, and June was third with 98. In January, usually the worst month of the year for traffic mishaps, 89 persons were injured, and in February, 59. There were 86 injury cases in March and 85 in April. May marked up 92 persons injured, and 79 persons were hurt in July. August injuries totaled 82.

Cahokia's Overton Takes Scoring Lead

Larry Overton of Cahokia scored three touchdowns in the latest outing to gain top spot in this area's race for prep football scoring honors.

Overton knocked Belleville's Clyde Kuehn down into a three-way tie for second place. Overton now has 60 points to his credit, on 10 touchdowns.

Kuehn, with 54 points, is tied with East St. Louis' Ron Lane and Wood River's Jim Dvorchak. Lane scored twice and Dvorchak scored three TD's in last week's action.

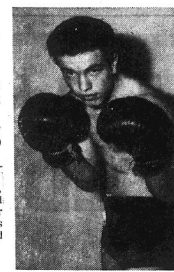

Don Yann of Highland is next with 48 points on eight TD's, followed by Cahokia's Don Gilmer with 42 points. Gilmer has accumulated his total in three weeks of action.

Craig Manwaring of Highland is seventh with 39 points, while Charles Tieman of Cahokia and Bill Farmer of Wood River are tied for eighth with 38 points. Granite City's Gary Johnson, who has missed two weeks of action due to a shoulder injury, is in 10th place with 37 points.

Conference Games
In Midwestern Conference scoring only, Overton leads the pack with 42 points, and Manwaring of Highland is in second place with 39 points. Highland's Yann, Cahokia's Tieman and Gilmer follow with 36, 31 and 30 points, respectively.

Over in the Southwestern Conference, by virtue of his three touchdowns last week, Wood River's Jim Dvorchak has taken first place away from Johnson and East St. Louis' Joe Robertson. Dvorchak has a point total of 30.

Robertson, Johnson and Mike Hudock of Wood River are locked with 24 points for the second spot.

Comanches Wear Crown Into Madison's Lair

Seldom does a tribe of Indians make the fashion page, but Cahokia's Comanches are sporting the latest in styles.

Wearing an Illinois-styled 40 conference record, a flared 167 points scored and a modest 13 opponents' points scored, topped off with the sparkling Midwestern Conference crown, the Comanches are the belles of the ball.

Coach Pete Truran's team blanked Rossau's Shells 46-0 and clinched the title position last weekend. But the Comanches will battle the up-and-down Trojans of Madison in a conference clash Friday night.

Also on the Midwestern Conference agenda are non-league games for the remaining teams. Second-place Highland will host little-known St. Elmo, and the Bulldogs will be aiming for win No. 7 in nine outings.

Fourth-place Bethalto hosts Carrollton, while Roxana, tied with Bethalto for fourth, travels to Jerseyville. Duplo, alone in the conference cellar, goes to Chester.

The Flyers of East St. Louis begin a series of two games that could have an effect on the showdown battle with Belleville on Thanksgiving Day.

Wood River will be host to East St. Louis Friday, and the Flyers need the win to stay on top of the Southwestern Conference heap, and undefeated in all action. The Oilers are in third

Goose Hunting Season To Open in 4 Counties

The goose hunting season in Alexander, Union, Jackson and Williamson counties opens at sunrise Monday, Nov. 8, and ends at 3 p.m. Thursday, Dec. 23, unless a quota of 15,000 birds is taken before the scheduled closing date. If the quota is bagged the season is closed immediately.

297 Teenagers Attend JC's Halloween Dance

The first Halloween dance for teenagers to be presented by the Granite City Junior Chamber of Commerce proved to be successful as 297 high school students turned out last week at the YMCA.

They paid 25 cents admission and received free sodas while dancing to the music of the Coachmen, a popular local teenage band.

"I believe," said Jaycee Dave Walker, project chairman for the dance, "that the evening was quite successful, especially considering the variety of other activities which were held at the same time." Several Jaycees and their wives served as chaperones.

JAYCEE HALLOWEEN DANCE attended by 297 teenagers at the YMCA. Part of the crowd whoops it up here.

"The Curious Savage"

The annual junior class play will be presented at 8 p.m. Friday in the school auditorium. The production is "The Curious Savage," written by John Patrick, author of "Teahouse of the August Moon."

The play is not at all about savages, as one might think from the title, but is rather about the struggle of a money-mad family to extract their step-mother's inheritance from her in any way possible.

Their madness stops no shorter than having her legally committed to a rest home. As one might have guessed by now, the "Curious Savage" is really the step-mother, who is an altogether charming and witty person with a sparkling personality, and who is not in the least "loony."

Mr. Patrick has written a comedy here, but it is a comedy with a message, that being that the outside world is truly much more insane than the rest home to which Mrs. Savage has been sent.

Included in the cast are Judy Austin as Fairy May, Chuck Barritt as Hannibal, Charlene Dumas as Florence, Richard Foley as Jeffrey, Gracelin Cagle as Mrs. Paddy (who hates electricity), Glenda Brown as Miss Willie and Tom Fields as Dr. Emmett.

Also in the cast, playing as members of the family, are Donna Dollar as Lily Belle, Ernie Wiedower as Titus and Jim Wiedower as Samuel. Playing our "curious" Mrs. Savage is Barbara Kutz, Miss Rogera Davis is serving as director.

Tickets are 75 cents for adults and 35 cents for students.

Miss Venetian Candidates

Last week the senior class nominated three girls to be candidates for Miss Venetian. Selected were Mary Jane Gray, Bernice Koelker and Sharon Koonce. Two of the 16 student council members will travel to Colinsville Saturday to attend the

Monmouth Students To 'Adopt' Army Unit

Students at Monmouth College plan to "adopt" an Army company fighting in Viet Nam this month as a constructive program aimed at helping the fighting servicemen there as well as informing the questioning college students on the campus.

In addition to sponsoring a series of discussions on U. S. policies in Viet Nam, students will communicate with the men who are carrying out the policies in the jungles of South Viet Nam.

They will write letters to the 220 Americans serving in A Co., Second Airborne Battalion, 502nd Airborne Division, to express appreciation and support for the work they are performing.

The students are raising funds to ship boxes of food, magazines and books to the men in the company. The students also are planning a blood donor's day and a special draft card recognition day.

Price Reports to Quad-Cities on 89th Congress 'Constructive Record'

(Special from Washington)
The "do-it-all" Congress, the "fabulous" Congress, the Congress that compiled the greatest record in history—these are some of the terms used by observers to describe the constructive record of 89th Congress, Rep. Melvin Price (D), East St. Louis, said in a review of the first session.

The passage of a single piece of major legislation is usually considered "enough to entitle a congressional session to a place in history." Price pointed out, he cited the Wagner Act of 1935, the Social Security Act of 1936, the Fair Labor Standards Act of 1938 in Franklin D. Roosevelt's era.

"In 1965 Congress produced a great mass of programs—some of them expansions from the past, some brand new—that are certain to change the quality of American life across the next several decades, for the better, he declared.

Medicare Accomplishment
The Illinois Democrat cited the Medicare bill as both a major piece of legislation and an example of how Congress modifies and harmonizes, the proposals a President makes.

"Mr. Johnson signed the bill with a very proper sense of triumph," he said, "but the fact is that the bill Congress approved was sharply modified from the original proposal sent to the House Ways and Means committee by four Democratic Presidents."

Other Major Measures
Price listed three other measures enacted by Congress as "major":

Approval of an immigration-reform measure, killing the 40-year-old "national origins" quota system that invited migrants from northern Europe who did not wish to come and prohibited or severely limited the immigration of families from southern and eastern Europe who did want to be a part of America.

The Voting Rights Act of 1965, authorizing the appointment of federal registrars where there is a pattern of racial discrimination.

A heavy increase in federal funds for higher education, both at the college level and beyond.

On the immigration bill, Price pointed out that "every President since Mr. Truman's day" has asked for major changes in our laws, "particularly in the 'national origins' provisions that impinge on groups were more worthy than others of citizenship in this country."

Economic Redevelopment
The 89th Congress also took the first step "toward developing a

The Ways & Means committee, with experience in the tax-and-financing fields of old age care, wrote its own bill in committee, the Senate amended it, the two houses agreed on a single version—and this was the Medicare program the President was invited to sign," Price observed.

He added that President Johnson's "personal contributions must be rated high" in the school Aid Act "He had courage enough to ask for more money than any President had urged before—$1.2 billion in a single year—and his technical advisers came up with an extraordinary new program of concentrating federal funds to aid the children of the poor, the city slum schools, rather than clinging to archaic measures of grant-in-aid division."

Continuing his listing of achievements, Price cited an updating and expansion of the manpower training program, a double authorization for the anti-poverty program, a reduction in multistate economic redevelopment plan" in the Appalachian program and that this was followed by a bill for "a more broadly conceived program for regional development, including the financing of local public works."

Congress also "took the first step since 1923 to increase the size of the President's Cabinet," he noted, when it authorized a new Department of Housing and Urban Development, and followed with a new omnibus housing program.

The 89th Congress should be credited with "sweeping new programs on water pollution and air pollution, with the objective of improving the environment in which our people live," he said.

Continuing his listing of achievements, Price cited an updating and expansion of the manpower training program, a double authorization for the anti-poverty program, a reduction in wartime excise taxes, and a military pay raise as well as a 3.6% raise for postal and civil service workers.

Foreign Aid and Farms
Both the foreign aid and farm programs were approved, he observed, in such a fashion that their effectiveness can be reviewed when the time comes.

Funds were voted by Congress for initial construction work on the $75 million Kaskaskia Navigation project. Price reported, and additional funds were voted over flood control and navigation projects in our district: $1,971,000 in East St. Louis and vicinity, $381,000 for the Chain of Rocks canal and locks improvement, $800,000 for New Athens levee.

In addition, Price noted, Congress voted $6.1 million in authorization for the Hillside Drainage project, that in the long run will cost $9.34 million and $179,000 in authority for a modified Wood River Drainage and Levee District project.

Plastic to Outstrip Steel, Speaker Says

Plastics, "a fantastic growth industry, and a new industry," already has outstripped aluminum and copper production, and in the matter of only a few years is expected to overcome production of the "biggest business of all-steel," according to Chris Kacaleff, owner and operator of the Chris Kay Plastics Manufacturing Co., 1200 Madison avenue, Madison.

Speaking before a regular meeting of the Rotary club in the YMCA Tuesday afternoon, Kacaleff declared that the plastic industry is such a rapidly developing business that "people in general have no idea of the extent of its growth," and the number of products for which it is used.

Plastic, he said, has become a part of everyday life and because of the lesser cost of production has replaced many metal products.

Much of the development of plastics has remained hidden, to a certain extent, Kacaleff declared, "because it comes under the heading of chemicals, and people do not compare chemicals with the other products."

Three years ago, he related, Polyethylene—one of the foremost types of plastic material—was produced to the extent of about one billion pounds. This year production of the same material will hit three billion pounds, a 200% increase. Another plastic material totaled 170 million pounds three years ago, and this year will total 800 million pounds.

Bakelite First Material
Development of the plastic industry began at the turn of the century, he pointed out, with a material commonly known as bakelite, which was used for switch plates, light sockets and other manufacturing items. Today, there is a multiplicity of materials from which different types of plastic items are made. Use of plastics has spread particularly into the automobile industry, Kacaleff related, involving the manufacture of parts that include hoods, grills and other exterior trim. Plastic, he said, is chrome-plated in many instances and replaces metal with a savings that, at the rate of 18-million-car production, amounts to a fabulous sum.

"The plastic industry," Kacaleff went on to say, "already has overtaken the non-ferrous industry—that is, aluminum and copper—and in the not too distant future will overtake the output of steel."

The earlier developments in the plastic field was in the use of cellulose-nitrate. "You all remember the old celluloid combs and similar items," he added, pointing out that use of celluloid as a material was dangerous "because it had a nature that, if exposed to flame, was second to gunpowder" in its inflammability content.

During the beginning era of plastic development, Kacaleff told his audience of about 50 Rotarians, "I had a friend in St. Louis whose plastic business was so new that he was listed in the yellow pages of the telephone book under 'Painters' because there was no other category under which he could be listed."

Easily Fabricated
Principal reason for the rapid growth of plastics, Kacaleff said, is because products are so easily fabricated, and because there has been development, in recent years, a large number of materials with which to produce items of a specific purpose or need.

As an example, he pointed out that in the last few years, a plastic material has been developed that "isn't even touched" by a welding torch that will melt steel.

Kacaleff presented a series of slides showing the different type of machinery and equipment used to fabricate various plastic items, and demonstrated some of the plastic items made in his plant. At the same time, he explained that price has played a major part in development of the plastic business.

"You have noticed," he declared, "that there have been increases in every material used in manufacturing . . . there have been increases in wood, metal and paper . . . but not in plastics."

The situation is quite the reverse, he said. Once plastic materials are developed, and improved, the price becomes less as the material is developed. Nylon, for example, was $2.15 a pound a few years back, but now sells for 98 cents a pound.

"Biggest thing today that is being developed in the industry, Kacaleff said, "is development of the plastic milk bottle . . . it is a coming thing."

Kacaleff was introduced by Christ Pashoff, program chairman.

Teen Town Dance Crowds Average 492 in October

YMCA Teen Town dances in October attracted a total of 2741 teenagers.

Five Saturday night dances had an average attendance of 492, and a special Halloween dance sponsored for the Teen Town by the Granite City Junior Chamber of Commerce, had an attendance of 297.

The dances have been supervised by five YMCA staff members. "Teen Town" dances have been at a very high level, especially when considering the size of the crowd," Brian Bronsman, Teen Town director, said.

He said parents are always extended an invitation to attend Teen Town functions and "quite a few interested parents find time to drop by for the Saturday evening affairs."

Two Wednesday night dances are scheduled for November in addition to the regular Saturday events. They will be held from 8:30 to 11:30 p.m. Nov. 10 and 24 as there will be no school the following Thursdays.

Also in the planning stage is a special New Year's Eve dance which will feature sandwiches and refreshments along with band dancing.

The band for Teen Town's dances has been the Coachmen, a local rock-and-roll band which Bronsman said has proven to be especially popular with teenagers.

The Chamber Orchestra at Southern Illinois University-Southwestern Campus will present a "corridor" concert at 8:15 p.m. Friday on the second floor of the new John Mason Peck classroom building.

The 19-member orchestra, including Esther Vasileff of Granite City as violinist, was organized last year and has appeared as accompaniment for SIU-SW choral groups. But this marks its first appearance in a program of its own.

3 Youths Enlist In Army Airborne Buddy Unit Plan

Three Quad-City youths enlisted in the U.S. Army this week under the buddy plan and were guaranteed airborne training, a field they selected before enlisting. S. F. C. James Maddox, local Army recruiter, announced today.

They are Forrest E. Mueller, 19, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Mueller Jr., 1527 Lindell Blvd.; Michael G. Bargiel, 19, son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul V. Bargiel, 1817 Third street, Madison; and Billy G. Love, 20, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Love, 112 Garesch Homes, Madison.

Mueller is a graduate of Granite City high school, and the other two are graduates of Madison high school. As paratroopers in an all-volunteer outfit, they will receive an extra $55 per month for jump pay.

Known as the elite group, airborne volunteers are among the best source of supply for officers candidate school, Sgt. Maddox said.

"Here a person has the best opportunity to demonstrate his leadership ability, which is the most important criteria in being selected for OCS, provided he has the basic requirements," they are to be a high school graduate and not less than 18½ years old.

"With the recent increase in quotas for OCS, there are great opportunities in the officer field of the Army," the recruiter said. More information on the program may be obtained by contacting him at 1340 Niedringhaus avenue.

The performance is open to the public without charge.

GC Studying Census Map for Redistricting

Redistricting Granite City's 10-sided wards to equalize population and still conform with the 32 township election precincts is to receive intensive study in the next two weeks.

The prime goal is to put an end to dual polling place confusion that occurs on city-township election days.

Alderman Paul Rutledge reported to the city council Monday that the Special Redistricting committee, of which he is chairman, has acquired a map prepared by the census bureau in 1960 and plans to have copies made for distribution and study.

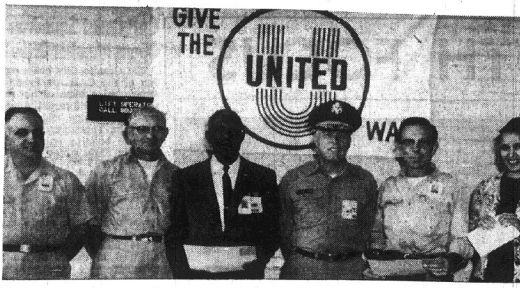

The chairman said the committee will meet next week and hopes to complete its task before the end of the year.

By redistricting within the boundaries of the township voting precincts, which are established at a county level, the city can use the same polling places for city-township elections. In the past, many Granite Cityans were forced to go to two different polling places to vote.

Rutledge added that he does not see a necessity for a special census that would cost the city about $9000.

"We can work from the 1960 census map, and while the state requires equal population for wards, I think we have to consider area problems in redistricting," he remarked, pointing out as an example the acute drainage problems of the Eighth Ward.

He added that the city realizes the Sixth and Eighth Wards are oversized—area and population—and that the task should be completed as soon as possible.

Shrine Imperial Potentate To Visit Area Next Week

When Imperial Potentate Barney Collins of Ancestry Temple, Mexico City, D.F., arrives in the area on Nov. 12th to participate in a two-day celebration in his honor with the 7000 members of Ancestry Temple, East St. Louis, the home of all Southern Illinois Shrines, he will find a mammoth parade and Mexican Fiesta to attend.

Potentate Frank Conner and his committee from Ancestry Temple are completing the final plans. The first duties of the official visit will include a tour of the new and historical landmarks in the area, including the Shrine of the Lady of the Snows and the St. Louis Arch.

On the night of Nov. 12, at the Collinsville ballroom, 1500 Nobles and their wives will gather for a Fiesta and barbecue, Mexican style. Robert Karner, president of the Collinsville Shrine Club and Director General Ed Maag of the Divan are arranging entertainment plus a group of Mexican dancers.

On Saturday, Nov. 13, there will be a parade in Collinsville's downtown section at which the Imperial Sir will honor the town which carries his name. The units of Ancestry Temple will be joined by many other temples which include all of the Units of Moah Temple in St. Louis. DeMolay groups will also swell the parade in size.

After the parade, a ceremonial for more than 150 candidates will be held in Ancestry Temple in East St. Louis.

Phillip Dressel, vice-president of the Aro Dressel Foods Corp., is in Chicago today attending a U. S. Department of Agriculture hearing, the outcome of which will determine whether residents of the Quad-City area will be denied the customary decrease in milk prices during the winter months.
The hearing opened at 9:30 a.m. today in the Conrad Hilton Hotel in Chicago and involves proposals of dairy farmers to maintain current minimum bottling milk prices to dairy farmers set in 12 milk orders covering the Midwestern area, including the Quad-Cities and the Illinois-Missouri Metropolitan area.
Dressel estimated that if the Department of Agriculture goes along with the dairy farmers' plea, wholesale milk firms in the Illinois-Missouri area would lose about $100,000 on milk sold under contract in quantities to large markets and institutions. Current prices are based on seasonal price changes, and an order maintaining current prices through a period in which they were expected to be reduced would result in a loss, Dressel explained.
Dressel explained that milk prices paid dairy farmers vary in accordance with orders issued by the Department of Agriculture at intervals, usually covering three- or four-month periods. Minimum prices paid dairy farmers are based mainly on production standards of the different periods.
Dressel said that the request of dairy farmers that milk prices be paid them during the winter months be left unchanged, rather than lowered as usually is done, would cost the Aro-Dressel firm about $900 through previously committed contract prices.
Customarily, he said, the wholesale price paid dairy farmers drops in December about 20 cents per hundredweight, or the equivalent of about 1 cent per half gallon.

Highway Audit Given Nameoki Township Board

Expenditures from the road and bridge fund of Nameoki township totaled $62,865 during the fiscal year that ended Aug. 31, leaving a balance of $2287, according to an audit of road and bridge financial operations presented to members of the town board in regular meeting Monday night.

Presentation of the audit was among routine business which included announcement by Supervisor Harry Briggs that he plans a meeting, as soon as possible, with Cong. Melvin Price, Democrat of East St. Louis, concerning federal legislation under which the township plans to seek a grant to help finance sewerage installations in State Park Place.

Briggs said he understands the law providing such grants is "made to order for our purposes," and that he plans to discuss the potentiality of a federal grant for Nameoki township with Congressman Price before taking any further steps on the State Park sewer plan.

The board also authorized Briggs and two office secretaries, Dorothy Nemmer and Mildred Popchak to attend meetings of the Illinois Welfare Association to be held in Chicago Nov. 14, 15 and 16. Those attending convention sessions receive reimbursement of $75 from the state, with the balance of convention expenses made up by the township. Briggs said this usually runs about $35 per person for the township.

Receipts Listed

The audit of the road and bridge fund showed receipts of $65,093 for the last fiscal year, including $42,773 in general taxes and $22,320 in motor fuel tax funds. Other receipts included $15,000 from sale of anticipation warrants, a $195 transfer from the town fund and a $2000 transfer from the special bridge fund.

Disbursements included $22,616 in accounts payable, $6670 for labor and $360 in office salaries. Other expenditures were $379 for the treasurer's salary, $896 in mileage, $300 in legal costs and $100 for the cost of the audit. Payment of $30,000 on outstanding anticipation warrants also was among the expenditures.

The total expenses applied against income left a balance of $2287 at the beginning of the current fiscal year Sept. 1.

Preparing Ordinances

Vasileff told the board that he is preparing some of the traffic control ordinances which the board expects to adopt, and will have them ready for the next meeting on Nov. 22. The attorney suggested, on a question by Briggs, that action on a proposed leash law to combat the stray dog problem be delayed until the annual meeting in April, since it will require a vote of electors.

No action was taken on a proposal to buy storage boxes and folding chairs because only one bid was received.

Highway Commissioner Charles Hanks notified the board that the highway department plans action against persons who park junk cars and unlicensed autos along township streets and roads. Hanks said that if necessary such cars will be towed away to keep the roadways clear of such obstacles.

Radar Speeding Arrest

Mary Hillmer, 2900 Michigan avenue, was charged with speeding at 8:45 a.m. Wednesday at 3100 Fehling road where police operated a radar unit. She was summoned for a hearing by Nov. 15.

City-Wide Beautification

Partney Urges Homeowners To 'Spruce Up' Property

A homeowner's responsibility for the appearance of his home was stressed today by Granite City Mayor Partney, who is striving for overall beautification of the city.

The mayor through his alley cleanup campaign and the hiring of a city painter pointed out today that the city is spending thousands of dollars for beautification of the city and he is urging cooperation of all residents. He has praised Illinois Power Co. for repainting its white way light standards, and East St. Louis & Interurban Water Co. has contracted for new yellow paint for its hundreds of fire hydrants.

The street department, Partney pointed out, also is sweeping streets and collecting trash from the downtown corners.

Cooperative Effort Needed

Aiming his new appeal at individual householders, the mayor said, "Your first responsibility lies at your front and back doors. This is where you start making the city a good place in which to live. The city could spend millions of dollars on street and civic improvements, but unless property owners do their part, the city's efforts are in vain."

"Your home beautification program need not cost a lot of money. Too often beauty is equated with expense. It should not be. A neat attractive home is the result of your aroused sense of personal and community pride and a little time and effort."

Mayor Partney said he has joined with President Johnson in the space-age endeavor which is nationwide. He added that many hints and short-cuts that can transform a shabby house into an attractive home at minimum costs are available to property owners.

Dec. 1st Deadline In Gasline Cases

Three firms who are seeking Federal Power Commission hearings on their plans to furnish additional natural gas supplies to the Illinois-Missouri Metropolitan area have been given until Dec. 1 to file new applications with the commission.

The companies include the Panhandle-Eastern Pipeline Co. of Kansas City and the Natural Gas Pipeline Co. of America, Chicago, which is joining with Mississippi River Transmission Corp. of St. Louis in presenting a proposal in competition to Panhandle.

Mississippi River Corp. is the present supplier of natural gas in the metropolitan area. Increased gas supplies are needed to meet full demands of industrial users, it was stressed.

In early September, the power commission denied an application by Oklahoma-Illinois Gas Pipeline Co. of Tulsa to build a 362-mile pipeline from the Tulsa fields to St. Louis. At that time the commission spelled out criteria for projects to meet the area's requirements. Panhandle, Natural and Mississippi were re-manded for further hearing by the FPC at that time. The applicants have been instructed to draw up their new applications on the basis of the criteria developed in the Oklahoma-Illinois case.

Many Mental Health Clinic Patients are Young Children

Preventive psychiatric treatment is strongly emphasized by the Quad-Cities Mental Health Center, an agency of the Quad-Cities United Fund.

Both the local center and its counterpart in Iowa are operating under a new philosophy of mental health care, launched by Illinois health officials in 1960, which stresses an effort by local communities to keep their citizens out of state hospitals with preventive measures and not wait until the patient is seriously ill.

Through the first ten months of 1965, 354 persons were given treatment at the Quad-Cities Health Center, located at 1234a Niedringhaus avenue. J. C. Schrappe, executive director, said. Many patients are young children from the first through fourth grade levels, who are experiencing difficulty in adjusting to school life, or unable to concentrate due to environmental or other problems.

Youngsters' Ailments

Several of the young patients have been found to disrupt the normal processes of the classroom. Schrappe said, while others may display withdrawal, extreme shyness and other symptoms of emotional stress. The children are referred to the clinic by physicians, special education school personnel and other authorities.

Described as a long-neglected area in need of psychiatric services, the executive director said many of these emotional needs in the younger child previously have not been recognized until the child has reached teenage level, creating the need for more extensive treatment.

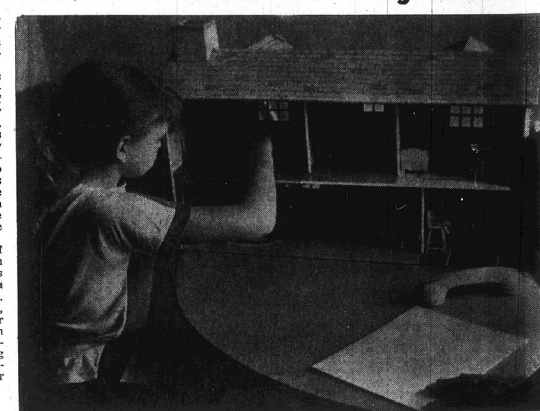

The local center houses a play therapy room, where children become more expressive while playing with various toys. In many instances, Schrappe said, observations in the playroom provide the key to their hostile or withdrawn behavior.

Arrested After Mishap

A charge of following too closely was filed against Howard J. Reid, St. Louis after his auto struck the rear of another driven by Dorothy Toth, 1507 Lindell blvd., at 7:25 p.m. Monday on Nameki road at Madison avenue. Reid was arrested at Pontoon and Nameki roads.

Changing Colors of Fall Robe Landscape in Beauty

JOHN W. ALLEN
Southern Illinois University
Each season of the year has its devotees. There are those who seem to measure their years by the number of their favorite seasons. They appear always to be looking forward to the return of their childhood part of the year, or in missing over past ones. Summer, autumn, and winter are devoted to be looked upon by spring devotees principally as obstacles on the roadway to next spring.

To the spring clan, some lines from an old school reader will indicate the basis of their creed. They may even quote some lines learned when memorizing bits of poetry was not a crime.

"What is so rare as a day in June?"
"When it ever comes perfect days."
"Then heaven tries earth if it be in love."

"And over it all her warm rays lay."
"Whether we look or whether we listen."
"We hear life murmur or see it glisten."

There undoubtedly is some justification for their devotion to that particular period of time. Other groups of the season worshipping cult are just as fully devoted to another portion of the year that comes at the close of summer. The more prosaic call it autumn; those more romantically inclined prefer the name of Indian Summer. These in turn quote other lines of poetry from favorite old school reader. Their favorite quotation, after taking a mild jab at June says:

"On sun and sky and clouds of June."
"And flowers of June together."
"You can not rival for one hour."
"October's bright blue weather."

Writer is Divided
The writer is among those of divided allegiance. Last spring he was a member of its clan.

Now that autumn, better to say Indian Summer, is here, everyone should seriously consider becoming a joiner, at least on a trial membership basis. Whether they do or do not openly declare their membership, every one should take some time to drive or hike over the wooded hills of Southern Illinois during this season and pause occasionally to enjoy any one of a thousand breathtaking views.

Our Egypt is a remnant of the hardwood forest that once extended from the Atlantic seaboard to the midland prairies. Enough of that forest remains to make much of the region an end of the season of color when the season comes for Jack Frost and his pines to spread their magic colors. Few areas in the world offer a landscape robed in colors more gorgeous than those of our own Egypt.

A strange thing about all this coloring is the way in which it harmonizes. Man may conjure up many colors and spread them about. When these are spread side by side, some almost shriek. It never seems to matter how pinks coloring the leaves spread their colors. However, they seem to tint the leaves, it seems to be just right. The colors mixed by Jack Frost and his corps of artists do not clash.

There are a number of trees that color red in varying shades and intensities. Others do likewise with purples, oranges, yellows, and browns. An occasional tree may carry all these colors in varying intensities. This confuses an occasional viewer not well acquainted with the woodland. To a practiced eye, however, a peculiar shade of red marks each kind of tree. A sour gum a half mile away clearly proclaims the fact that it is not a maple, dogwood, sweet gum, sassafras, or another tree that wears red.

Have Distinctive Shades
The shade of the red in the fences across the field tells the skilled viewer that it is sassafras and not sassafras. The crown of the oak, hickory, or cypress have their distinctive shades.

Where are all these finely colored woodlands? They may be seen along a dozen roadways through the hill lands. At the present time a riot of color along Illinois 127 extends from Vandalia to the junction with Illinois 146. By turning west at the junction and returning over Pine Hills, the traveler may, while traveling along the crest of the hills, pause at lookouts prepared beside the road and look to the Mississippi. Though there are twelve miles on this hill road without a home site. One cannot possibly become lost except in wonder.

There are a dozen great looping drives, all rewarding, that one may take. From Harrisburg over Route 13 to Route 1 east of Equality, thence to Cave-in-Rock and west to Route 34 and back to Harrisburg is a wonderful color drive. On this trip do not fail to stop on the hill above the cave at Cave-in-Rock and look down and down the Ohio. Likewise take a look from the lighthouse at the Rose Hotel in Elizabeth town. The view from these points are among the memorable river views in the country.

To make it simpler, take a veritable for an aircraft manufacturer and just start south over almost any road and wander about. That also gives the eyes a feeling of discovery. However you may choose to go about it—go. This is "October's bright blue weather." Enjoy it.

Children Benefited

The State of Illinois ranked second in the nation for the number of pre-school children who were benefited from Project Head Start during the eight-week summer school vacation period, Thomas C. Jackson, director of the Illinois Office of Economic Opportunity, has announced.

A total of 33,804 boys and girls attended pre-school classes and participated in the Illinois Head Start program. Illinois was second only to the State of New York where 38,108 children received pre-school training. The Head Start program is designed to help prepare underprivileged pre-school children for elementary school education. Total cost of the program in Illinois was $5,126,608. Of this amount $4,568,175 was federal funds, while $558,433 was the value of the local contributions. Jackson said that all the local Head Start contributions which exceeded the necessary 10 per cent, were made "in kind," not in cash. Local agencies operating Head Start programs contributed their share in services, classroom facilities and volunteer help. A total of 2,838 volunteers assisted in the Head Start program in 324 centers.

Trees Not Dying

Nursery owners and homeowners concerned about their evergreens losing all but the current season's needles, can be assured there is little danger of the trees dying, says Dr. D. F. Schoeneweiss, assistant plant pathologist of the Illinois Natural History Survey, Urbana, in answer to many inquiries from Illinois homeowners. "Browning and dropping of older needles or leaves of evergreens occurs to some extent every year and is natural, similar to the dropping of leaves from deciduous trees in the fall," Dr. Schoeneweiss said. "While the condition is unusual this year and we cannot pinpoint the cause, it is undoubtedly the result of one or more climatic factors."

Since this fall's browning and loss of needles is the result of damage already occurred, no control measures are recommended. Dr. Schoeneweiss says it is not likely the loss of older needles will cause any permanent damage.

Duck Count Down

Duck population in the Illinois and Mississippi River Valleys will not be as high for the opening day of the 1965 hunting season as they were on opening day in 1964, the Illinois Department of Conservation has announced. Duck season began at sunrise, Saturday, Oct. 30, and ends at sunset, Wednesday, Dec. 8. Hunting hours are from sunrise until sunset every day. The daily bag limit is four ducks but this total of October last year 101,000 mallards, 8,500 pintails, 23,000 green-winged mallards, one pintal, two wood ducks, or two canvasbacks. The possession limit after opening day is eight ducks but not more than two mallards, two pintails, two wood ducks, or two canvasbacks may be held in possession.

In 1964 there were about 213,000 ducks on the Mississippi the first day of the season, 49,200 more than were counted during the last census flight this October. Caution children not to put any leaves, berries, seeds or fruits into their mouths, except those washed and handed to them by adults, Dr. Franklin D. Yoder, director of the Illinois Department of Public Health, has warned. Many common household and yard plants are poisonous in whole or in part if put in the mouth or swallowed. This is the season of the year when nature provides brilliant flowers or attractive seeds and berries on many plants. Children in the exploratory stage, the "hand to mouth" years, unfortunately find these berries or flowers attractive, too, Dr. Yoder said. Some taste or eat bulbs brought in at this time of year—and some are poisonous, such as bulbs of tulips, lilies, daffodils and narcissi. If a child eats part of any plant, or is suspected of doing so, a physician or the nearest poison control center should be called immediately. There are 32 such centers in the emergency rooms of Illinois hospitals. These centers operate on a 24-hour basis.
